

PHONSIE MACEACHERN

Port Hood, Nova Scotia

Nominated as: Active Director, Atlantic Region

Phonsie MacEachern has been a Standardbred owner and breeder for over 30 years and currently enjoys travelling the Maritimes attending harness racing events. Phonsie owned and operated MacEachern Wholesale Ltd. for 34 years serving retail outlets across Eastern Nova Scotia and he currently owns and manages GLS Properties.

Phonsie, who resides in Port Hood, NS, would like to see the harness racing industry in Canada promoted as a sport which appeals to all generations and would like to see it become more appealing to families.

Strong organizational and management skills would be assets that Phonsie would bring to the table as a Director of Standardbred Canada.

Communicating the wishes of the members that Phonsie would represent from Atlantic Canada would be a priority.

A team player in business and volunteer organizations, Phonsie would bring these conciliatory skills to discussions.
