RACES

Race 1 Judges inquiry, reviewed break by #7 PL Ketchup in the stretch. Talked to driver M Saftic and he felt that the driver of #4 Mass Psychology came down on him and forced his horse offstride. Per Henriksen the driver of #4 said that #7 never had enough room to get through and he put his horse in a tight spot, he was not driving straight and he caused his own problem.. We agree with Mr. Henriksen, there was never enough room to get through and #7 was put into a tight spot and ends up striking the wheel. We have given the horse P L Ketchup an interference break as it was not the horses fault and we will have a review with Mr Saftic on Thursday to discuss days.
