

Brady Sweet:

The Springfield West, Prince Edward Island native is amid a breakout season. The 22-year-old Trainer/Driver has tripled his annual purse total this season in less than double the starts from the prior year while becoming a regular reinsman on the P.E.I. circuit, picking up drives from stables like Marc Campbell and Jeff Holmes. Sweet picked up multiple Atlantic Canada Sired Stakes Events with his trainee, Thinkinofeddie and has seen his training stats skyrocket as well.

Training	Starts	1st	2nd	3rd	Purses	UTRS
	34	6	3	8	$24,040	.303

Driving	Starts	1st	2nd	3rd	Purses	UDRS
	301	59	45	45	$163,928	.328

Todd Ratchford:

In just his second year as a full-time driver, the 28-year-old Caledonia, Ontario, Native had a breakout season surpassing the $1 million mark in seasonal earnings. As the regular pilot for the Matt Bax trainee, Winning Alliance, a New York Sired three-year-old trotting filly. Ratchford's largest win of the season came at Vernon Downs in a New York Sired Stakes event with Winning Alliance. Ratchford also experienced the Grand Circuit with the Bax Filly as well.

Driving	Starts	1st	2nd	3rd	Purses	UDRS
	803	92	79	97	$1,015,141	.209

Rebecca Kanak:

In her first full season as a conditioner, the Saskatoon, Saskatchewan native has found her footing on the Western Canadian circuit. Starting her training career in September 2023, Kanak had success right from the get-go, collecting her first training win in only her fifth start. Her success continued into 2024 with pacer West Coast Beach. Since entering the Kanak barn, West Coast Beach has had 16 starts, sports an impressive 10-1-2 record, and has found comfortable footing amongst the Preferred ranks at Fraser Downs.

Training	Starts	1st	2nd	3rd	Purse	UTRS
	127	32	23	22	$170,358	.410