Office: Nothing to report.

Races:

R1 – Clear

R2 – Clear

R3 – INQUIRY - #5 Motor City Cobra (P. Barr) made a break in stride going to the ¾ mile and bared out into #4 Ben Lookin (A. Moore) causing the pair to hook wheels. #5 fell to the track with the driver hanging on to the horse. The warning lights were activated to caution the drivers, but the emergency siren was not activated to cancel the race given the location of the accident and that there were no loose horses. As a result, the driver of #1 Hasselhoff (G. Rooney) did attempt to pull up his horse in the stretch and finished 4th. We spoke to Rooney post race and explained the emergency procedures (amber lights mean drive with caution, lights and emergency siren means the race is called off). The Official Vet reported that Motor City Cobra was uninjured, and the Judges spoke to driver Patrick Barr who was also uninjured.

R4 – This race was delayed by 30 minutes while the track was plowed. At 7:45 PM the races were cancelled due to the weather.

Claims: None
