Race 9 – Inquiry: Starting car recall lights were left on accidentally coming to the start. Starter did release the horses at the start and all horses left and raced through to the finish. Judges spoke to all drivers in the race. The drivers all reported that they knew they were racing, and their starts were unaffected by the lights being left on. Upon review of the replay, the judges also determined that all horses were up on the gate and left without hesitation as the starter let them go. The judges had no issues with officiating the entirety of the race. All horses did receive a fair start.
