

Rules & Regs for Handicapping Auction

1. Each participant will be given a mythical bankroll of $100. (monopoly money)
2. Participants can bid on horses for their stable from two tracks.
3. The auction will go through the races in the following order: Track A- race 1, Track B – race 1, Track A – race 2, Track B- race 2 and so on.
4. The auction will start promptly at 5:30 p.m. Bidding procedures and rules will be reviewed at 5:15 p.m. All players must be registered by 5:00 p.m.
5. The minimum bid for a horse is $2. The maximum bid is $100. The first person recognized by an auctioneer for a bid receives the bid.
6. If at the end of the auction, any bidders still have monies left, there will be a second round auction of any horses remaining. At the end of the second round, there will be no more bidding. Any mythical bankroll remaining will be considered void.
7. Following the completion of the auction, it is up to the participants to verify their purchases and confirm with contest officials.
8. There will be no trading of horses allowed.
9. Participants will receive the win & place payoffs for the horses in their stable. In the event of a scratch or refund, players will receive the $4 refund payout.
10. The participant with the highest bankroll at the end of the evening will win a spot in the TROT Canada National Handicapping Championship and 70% of the entry money. The runner up will receive 20% of the entry money and the third place finisher will receive 10% of the entry money.

11. In the event of a tie, the participant with the most number of winners selected will win. If there is still a tie, the person who had the highest win payout will be declared the winner. If there is still a tie, there will be a random draw to determine the winner.
12. In the event of any discrepancies the contest officials will make the final decision and reserve the right to make any changes deemed in the best interest of the contest.
13. Player eligibility - Players must be Canadian residents, 19 years of age and over. Employees of Standardbred Canada and officers and employees of Woodbine Entertainment Group and their immediate family members, and its subsidiaries are not eligible to participate in the Championship. Entrants must be available to travel and arrive in Toronto no later than noon (EST) on Saturday, October 18 to participate in the TCNHC at Woodbine Racetrack in Toronto.
14. Grand Prize - The Grand Prize consists of entry into the TROT Canada National Handicapping Championship on Saturday, October 18 at Woodbine Racetrack along with accommodation for one night. The prize is not transferable.

For more information or to register for SC's Handicapping Auction, contact Kathy Wade Vlaar or Erin Braybrook at (905) 858-3060 x 207 or 243. Entries will be taken on first come, first serve basis, with a valid credit card. There will be no refunds once a spot is paid for.