You are invited to join Bob Jeffreys and Suzanne Sheppard, appearing this month in Clinton and Norwich, Ontario! They will be Guest Speakers at the 2010 World Equestrian Games being held at the Kentucky Horse Park next year. Here is your chance to get a sneak peak at the high calibre clinicians that will be appearing at the 2010 World Equestrian Games!

A little background about Bob Jeffreys & Suzanne Sheppard:

Bob and Suzanne's unique horse training and teaching talents come together in their Two as One Horsemanship™, striking a perfect balance between the English and Western riding disciplines in a way that inspires equine enthusiasts worldwide. Join them online, at equine expos nationwide, and in their Two as One Clinics, Horsemanship Education Courses, and ProTrack™ Horse Trainer Certification Program.

If you think that New York doesn't have cowboys, you've never met Bob Jeffreys. For over 25 years, Bob has helped riders develop their horsemanship skills to produce the most rewarding relationship possible with their horses. His students enjoy his no-nonsense approach, witty attitude and his uncanny ability to pinpoint problems and develop specific solutions. From starting horses under saddle to trail riding to reining, Bob's techniques empower his students to bring out the best in their horses.

Suzanne Sheppard's love of horses and their beautiful movement, knowledge of good biomechanics and teaching experience have all come together in her work as a horse trainer, Centered Riding® Clinician and co-founder of Two as One Horsemanship™. Suzanne's cross disciplinary equine interests include trail riding, dressage, jumping, natural horsemanship, gaited horses and more. With a Masters Degree in Education, a black sash in T'ai Chi and more than 20 years of teaching experience, she is able to teach complex equitation concepts in a humorous, creative and down to earth style, which empowers horses and riders to fulfill their individual and combined potential.

Calling All Horses and Their People!!

Do you have a talented, versatile horse? Do you enjoy working with your horse and learning new skills? Are you having such a fantastic time with your horse, you wish you could show others how great your horse really is? There is such an opportunity on the horizon!.....and there are awards, money and fabulous prizes to be given out in addition to the all important bragging rites! The Can-Am Wind Rider Challenge is touring Ontario this year with a Regional competition near you! There are no fancy outfits required and any breed or discipline is welcome. All participants are judged on their horsemanship skills and their communication with their horse, not on attire or turnout. If you show your horse regularly or if you have never shown before, this is the venue for you to reveal to the world just how wonderful your horse really is! The Can-Am Wind Rider Challenge is just that, a friendly, educational environment where horse and rider teams can have fun, learn a thing or two and win awards, money and awesome prizes! The winner of each Regional Challenge will also win a free spot at the Finals, to be held during the Eighth Annual Can-Am All Breeds Equine Emporium in London, Ontario, March 19-21, 2010, where they will have the chance to win a share of the over $15,000 in money and prizes including a custom made Ortho Flex Saddle worth over US$5200 and an Anivac Bathing System valued at over $1000! Second and third prizes include a treeless saddle from Horselife.ca, among many other awards!

All breeds and disciplines are invited to compete on a timed course with a variety of challenges including trail obstacles, ring jousting, gymkhana and elements of reining, hunter/jumper and dressage.....offered in an educational clinic format!.....everyone has fun and learns!

The Can-Am Wind Rider Challenge will be presented by Bob Jeffreys & Suzanne Sheppard during this exciting 2009-2010 seasons. The Regionals offer a unique, fun-filled opportunity for riders 14 years or older from all disciplines to compete for prizes, money and a place at the 2010 Can-Am All Breeds Equine Emporium Wind Rider Challenge Finals! The cross disciplinary course will consist of a pattern including, but not limited to some of the following elements: circles cantered on the correct lead with speed control (or circles in gait with speed control for gaited breeds), a 2 foot jump, trotting or gaiting while balancing an object in one hand, backing through and around barrels, sidepassing, ground poles, balanced halts, turn on the haunches or turnarounds, leg yielding, open/close a gate and a ring joust. If you and your horse want to show off your teamwork in front of an audience, then you'd be great candidates to participate! Western riders, dressage riders, hunter/jumpers, trail riders, natural horsemen and gaited horse riders are all invited to compete individually with their horses on this timed cross disciplinary course. For the eliminations, our notable guest judges will award points on each challenge according to accuracy, horse's attitude, good horsemanship and equitation.

Can-Am would like to thank our many sponsors, including Anivac, Home Hardware, Horselife.ca, Orthoflex Saddleworks Inc. and The Rider.com for providing generous prizes for these exciting events.
